

Westminster Rescue Mission food giveaway in Union Bridge | PHOTOS

By Brian T. Krista

PUBLISHED: November 21, 2024 at 4:13 PM EST

Local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

Local volunteers join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month, Nov. 20.

Clients wait in a motor line as local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

Motorists line up in the parking lot as local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

Union Bridge resident Wendy Snyder, left, and Carroll County Public Schools employee Kelly Snyder, sort through frozen chickens and turkeys as local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

Ryan Day, director of the Mission Food Program, works to unload food from a truck as local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

Local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

Sherri Bullard with the Salvation Army carries food to a client's car as local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community

Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

Ed Singer, a Westminster resident and board member with United Way of Central MD, sorts vegetables into bags with other local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, joining Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)

People work together to unload a truck filled with food as local volunteers, representing themselves and other community organizations, join Westminster Rescue Mission as they do a food giveaway in the parking lot at the Union Bridge Community Center on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. (Brian Krista/Staff)